1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the cited prior art does not teach a method of facilitating communication between nodes on different segments of a network comprising communication with first and second node via the respective segments and sending, to first node, a response to the request comprising a hardware address of the computer and a network address of the second node, thereby enabling the first node to communicate with the second node as if the first and second nodes are on the same segment of the network. The cited prior art does not teach the changing value of the source MAC address in the ARP message from a MAC address of the first and second computer in order to create modified ARP message; and transmitting modified response message over the network segment to computer as if the first and second computers are on the same network segment.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
